

Rosh Hodesh: It's a Girl Thing!

Group Leader Supervision Questions

Supervision should invite open communication about the Rosh Hodesh: It's a Girl Thing! group so that questions can be answered, problems/challenges can be addressed, and the group's success can be ensured. Sample supervision ideas follow.

A. Clarify Institutional Partner standards:

- 1. Payment (see page 10 for Group Leader contract)
- 2. Privacy and safety regulations at your site with regard to issues of concern in the group.
- 3. Communal policies regarding kashrut/observance

B. Sample questions follow. Some questions you may ask every time you meet, others are one time questions.

- 1. What can I do to help you?
- 2. Is there anything in the Rosh Hodesh materials for which I can provide further understanding?
- 3. Tell me a great thing that happened at your last gathering.
- 4. Tell me about the dynamics of the girls in your group.
- 5. Are there any girls about whom you have concerns?
- 6. What tools are you using to communicate with parents?
- 7. What do you enjoy most about leading your group?
- 8. What challenges you the most about leading your group?
- 9. What can we put together to share with the board about the group this year (ex. photos, written summary, letter from girls/parents, presentation by two participating girls).
- 10. What are the next steps to be taken as a result of our time today?
